Re: British Columbia Utilities Commission – Attestation

Dear Christina Zacharuk:

This letter is provided to confirm the compensation information uploaded to the Labour Information Gathering and Executive Reporting Program is accurate and the BCUC has remained within the established compensation framework.

Sincerely,

David Morton
Chair and Chief Executive Officer

Compensation Disclosure

The BCUC is required to disclose compensation of its CEO and at minimum the next four highest paid executives who earn $125,000 or more on an annual basis pursuant to the Public Sector Employers Act, Section 14.8.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

As a public sector organization, the BCUC designs and administers executive compensation within its approved compensation plan. The BCUC competes for talent with regulated entities in the energy environment, including private and public, as well as accounting, engineering, consulting and other professional firms to hire and retain staff with the required knowledge, skills and abilities in addition to regulatory expertise.

The Independent Review of the BCUC, released by the Provincial Government in February 2015, identified that the BCUC's current compensation plan restricts its ability to recruit necessary talent to deliver on its mandate. Further to the Independent Review, on March 2018 the Auditor General of BC published an observation report. The impact of BCUC's mandate and the importance of adequate capacity to carry out its mandate were observed in the report.

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

Due to current compensation mandates the BCUC is unable to provide a total compensation program that will attract and retain competent and motivated individuals to assist in fulfilling its mission.

The BCUC's compensation philosophy is grounded on four primary principles.

Principle 1 – Performance

Diverse factors are used to determine individual compensation. Performance is directly linked to performance targets and measured throughout the year and, for senior positions, an overall review of the division's performance. The BCUC supports and promotes a performance-based (merit) organizational culture and determines progression through approved salary ranges by analyzing employee performance relative to established annual performance plans and targets. Natural, year-over-year progression through an approved salary range is also considered. For senior (management) positions, compensation is contingent on both individual and division (team) performance.

Principle 2 – Accountability

The BCUC strives to provide total compensation equivalent to the median total compensation provided to comparable positions. External benchmarks allow the BCUC to make objective, clear and well-documented compensation decisions which demonstrate the appropriate expenditure of public accountability. While the knowledge gained from comparing and benchmarking compensation is valuable, this approach has been tempered by the current restrictions on government compensation.

Principle 3 – Differentiation

The BCUC strives to provide internally equitable compensation; the BCUC supports differentiation of salary where there are differences in the scope, responsibilities and impact of the position within the organization.

Principle 4 – Transparency

In the interest of transparency, both internally and externally, the BCUC's compensation program is designed, managed and communicated in a manner that ensures clear understanding.

PERFORMANCE INCENTIVE PLAN

As directed by government the Performance Incentive Program was discontinued as of March 31, 2014.

BENEFITS

The BCUC provides the following benefits, life insurance, medical service plan, extended health and dental, health spending account, wellness program and long term disability plans. Employees of the BCUC are also enrolled in the Public Service Pension Plan.

Further details regarding the BCUC are available in the annual report which can be accessed on the BCUC's website www.bcuc.com
