Chair, Destination BC Corp.

Enclosures

Destination BC Corp.
Statement of Executive Compensation
Year ended March 31, 2026

BACKGROUND

Established on November 2, 2012 under the Business Corporations Act and continuing as a statutory Crown corporation pursuant to the Destination BC Corp. Act, Destination BC Corp. is wholly owned by the Province of British Columbia and commenced operations on April 1, 2013.

Operating as Destination British Columbia (Destination BC), the Crown corporation works collaboratively with tourism stakeholders across the province to coordinate tourism marketing at the international, provincial, regional and local levels.

MANDATE

Destination BC has a mandate to:

- Market British Columbia domestically, nationally and internationally as a tourist destination;
- Promote the development and growth of the tourism industry in British Columbia to increase revenue and employment in, and the economic benefits generated by, the industry, including, without limitation:
    - Provide support for regional, sectoral and community tourism marketing;
    - Provide industry leadership in tourism marketing;
    - Promote training and development in relation to tourism marketing;
    - Provide support for visitor centres; and
    - Conduct tourism-related market research;
- Provide advice and recommendations to the minister on tourism-related matters;
- Enhance public awareness of tourism and its economic value to British Columbia; and
- Administer and perform agreements assigned to it by the Minister.

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

Destination BC is subject to the Public Service Act and all employees, other than the Chief Executive Officer, are subject to the terms and conditions of employment as set out under that legislation. Consequently, Destination BC's compensation philosophy follows the BC Public Service's objectives and guiding principles for compensation.

The Chief Executive Officer is subject to the Public Sector Employers Act. The CEO compensation package is set by the Board of Directors as per guidelines established by the Public Sector Employers' Council in accordance with government's compensation guidelines.

Objectives

The objectives of Destination BC's compensation philosophy are to:

- Support and retain individuals who demonstrate Destination BC's leadership expectations, values and competencies needed to achieve the objectives of government.
- Attract qualified, diverse and high-potential individuals to Destination BC.
- Support a performance-based culture by providing in-range increases to employees to achieve results and exhibit superior performance.

Guiding Principles

The following principles guide the design, implementation and administration of Destination BC's compensation programs:

- Performance – Compensation programs support and promote a performance-based organizational culture.
- Differentiation – Differentiation of salary is supported where there are differences in the scope of the position within an organization, and/or due to superior individual or team contributions.
- Accountability – Compensation decisions are objective and based upon a clear and well documented business rationale that demonstrates the appropriate expenditure of public funds.
- Transparency – Compensation programs are designed, managed and communicated in a manner that ensures the program is clearly understood by employees and the public while at the same time protecting individual personal information.

Destination BC is positioning itself as a learning organization and promotes self-awareness and encourages staff to advance themselves through training and work experience.
